FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ANDRIA LEWIS NAMED TO CHOICE HOTELS
OWNERS COUNCIL EXECUTIVE BOARD

Andria Lewis, owner of two award-winning Choice Hotels located in Boulder and Golden, Colorado, has recently been named Secretary on the Executive Board of the National Choice Hotels Owners Council (CHOC).

Lewis, originally from Connecticut, moved to Boulder with her husband and business partner 12 years ago and purchased the Boulder Creek Quality Inn & Suites in 1999 and in 2004 purchased The Golden Hotel, an Ascend Collection. During her 11 years with Choice Hotels International, Andria has held and is currently holding several additional positions including the Director of Region 11 CHOC Board, Director of Region 11 Advisory Board (RAB), the Chair of the Ascend Collection Committee and a member of the Quality Inn Brand Committee. Lewis also had the prestigious honor of being awarded Woman of the Year through Choice Hotels International in 2009. Andria is also Past President of the Boulder Hotel & Motel Association.

CHOC board members work with the Corporate Management of Choice Hotels International establishing policies and programs and provide communication between hotel franchisees and Choice Corporate Management.

Lewis's professional career prior to the hotel industry includes holding Executive positions at both Estee Lauder and Tiffany & CO. Local community involvement includes past president of the Boulder Hotel & Motel Association, assisting in starting the 9 News Health Fair and working with the Boulder Homeless Shelter.
